

PRESS RELEASE - Edinburgh Fringe 2010

BOB SLAYER'S PUNK ROCK CHAT SHOW

"Raw alternative comedy that embraces the unexpected..."

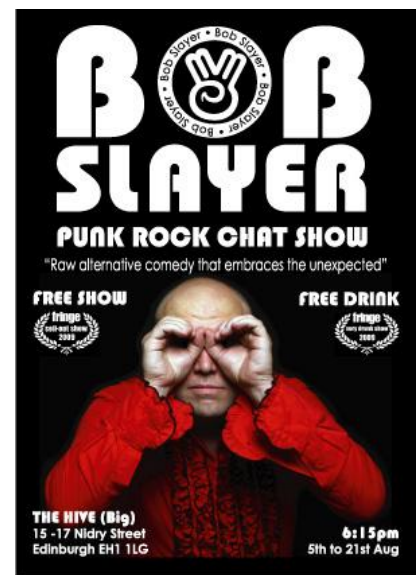

Wild liberating banter, games and stories from a rock & roll tour manager who has travelled the world with The Stooges, Electric Eel Shock, Bloodhound Gang and more. No rules, no limits, no refunds!

"This is what happens when real rock, comedy and a lot of drink mix together, and it should never be any other way." ThreeWeeks

The Hive, Niddry St @ 6:15

Bob Slayer:

"I used to be a jockey but then I broke my back and got fat. It was time to move on. I became an unemployed alcoholic, who was saved by Rock & Roll. I have toured all over the world as tour manager for numerous rock bands, frequently getting on stage to introduce, fill in and support.

"I got into comedy after reading the biography of Malcolm Hardee... A few years later at the 20th Birthday of Up The Creek, I was asked by Martin Soan to join him in the Naked Balloon Dance in the part of his old mate Malcolm Hardee. It was an honour and the comedy equivalent of Marky Ramone ringing me up to come and sing like Joey down at CBGB's... Knob Out! I have performed comedy all over the UK, Ireland, Netherlands, France, Hong Kong... This will be my 3rd Edinburgh."

"An act clearly more drunk than the audience... Bob Slayer worked through his paying guests with amazing skill... His incredibly rude comedy and outrageous stories may shock some, and that's nothing compared to other scenes, which left us emotionally scarred, yet in fits of laughter." Threeweeks.co.uk

"The wild man of comedy, like Keith Moon" Malcolm Hardee Awards

"Marching all over the line that shouldn't be crossed like a drunken Henry Rollins with Tourette's" Brighton Argus

"This is Rock & Roll comedy" Classic Rock

"...chaotic, improvised, crazily rude and in your face... a cross between Frankie Boyle and Henry Rollins, although far more drunk and disorderly." Listmaniabath.com

"A right funny ct" Sunday Sport

Miles Lloyd:

A little Welshman who went up to Edinburgh Fringe last year on a Mega Bus. Bob found him sleeping in a bin, took pity on him and took him for breakfast (lager in Whistle Binkies). A scrubbed up Miles managed to convince a stripper to let him sleep in her bed, which he did for the next ten months. He is returning to Edinburgh and his bin to join Bob on stage.

APPEARING AT EDINBURGH FRINGE 2010 - Laughing Horse FREE Festival:

Venue: The Hive – Main Cave (Venue 313), 15-17 Niddry Street EH1 1LG

Time: 18:15 (49 minutes)

Dates: 5-22 August 2010

Venue Tel: 0131 556 0444

MEDIA CONTACT: Bob Slayer - 07811-200 501 / akabobs@gmail.com

HI-RES IMAGES FOR DOWNLOAD at: www.bobslayer.com